MACM Director General addresses the Irish Credit Community

Josef Busuttil, Director General of the Malta Association of Credit Management, and President of the Federation of European Credit Management Associations, delivered a motivational speech at the Irish Credit Team Award held in Dublin.

His presentation focused on the importance of the credit practitioners' role in today's changing business world and its importance within any business organisation as good credit management practices ensure sound cash flow and profit.

Following his speech, Josef Busuttil presented the twenty awards to the winning credit teams. These credit teams hailed from various sectors of the Irish business community.

"It was my great honour and privilege to present the Irish Credit Team Awards to the Irish credit practitioners this year. It was a well-deserved event to celebrate and acknowledge the hard work, commitment and great achievements of those working in the field of credit management. Congratulations to the winners and the runners-up who have all worked hard towards attaining sound cash flow and profit to your organisations." Josef Busuttil
