

Industry Credit Group Online Meeting

Industry Credit Group is a unique and valuable service which provides opportunities not only for the exchange of vital credit experience information, but also opportunities for businesses to increase their knowledge, resources and skills.

MACM Members, trading in the HORECA Industry are urged to participate wholeheartedly in the exchange of ideas, credit experience information and other discussions, especially during this unprecedented crisis where hotels, restaurants, bars and catering establishments are closed.

Covid-19 financial incentives provided by the government will also be discussed.

These meetings are legal and ethical, for informative and constructive purposes only and Competition Act regulations are strictly enforced. There must never be any agreement among the members to sell or not to sell, or in any way to restrict free trade. Members are admonished not to intentionally attempt to influence other members' decisions by offering opinions or advice, but to share only factual and historical information.
