

Dear MACM Members,

We are pleased to inform you that we have recently started collaborating with SeminarsMalta.com – a portal that brings together the most important seminars, events, courses and training in Malta.

Dedicated to promoting opportunities for skills development, lifelong learning and talent growth across all sectors in Malta, we believe that the Seminars Malta portal can be of interest to many of you and are happy to mention that you can now find all our upcoming events and courses on the Seminars Malta portal in addition to our regular channels. If you would like to receive their weekly roundup of events, you can sign up for their newsletter here.

About Seminars Malta

Matching learners with education providers to facilitate skills development, lifelong learning and talent growth across all sectors in Malta.

From accredited courses, to industry trainings and business webinars; Seminars Malta provides a simple and efficient tool to find out about all relevant learning opportunities including seminars, eLearning, courses, training, webinars, conferences, venues, funding and more.

If you would like more information, please contact Morgane Stein directly on stein@seminarsmalta.com. You can also follow Seminars Malta on social media to get the latest updates.

Kind regards,

MACM Secretariat
